

Natural Selection Worms

Why do some creatures thrive in the right environment? Children discover that adaptation to habitat is the key. They love the active outdoors game too.

Natural selection worms covers two key topics at KS2, working scientifically with living things and their habitats.

We learn about natural selection, predators and camouflages. Then everybody goes outside to play a fun game.

On rainy days we can combine this with our indoor adaptation and camouflage workshop.

WORKSHOP DURATION

1:00

YEAR(S)

KS2

MAX GROUP SIZE

30

